About us:

At envisatminers.com, we put our customers at the core of our business. We're passionate about creating services that support customers with a great experience toward their goals. Do we seek to innovate? Certainly. And before all endeavors, we ask our team to start with three simple questions: Do I understand the customer's needs? Am I minimizing customer efforts? How does this increase customer value? If they're ready to answer, then we go ahead!.

We believe that by inspiring our team and trusting them, we create opportunities for envisatminers.com. We prefer free mindsets instead of detailed instructions where we can avoid them. The only golden rule we set is to be accountable — for actions we take, behaviors we demonstrate, and decisions we make.
